About Dayalbagh Educational Institute

Soon after Dayalbagh was founded in 1915, the Radhasoami Satsang Sabha, in pursuance of the lofty ideals to evolve the superman of tomorrow, started the Radhasoami Educational Institute, as a co-educational Middle School, open to all, on January 1, 1917. The Institute, since the very beginning, combined the pursuit of academic studies with sensibilities involving moral and spiritual values. From the modest beginning, the nucleus not only grew and got divided but also spawned new institutions, as per the needs of the society and the demands of the time.

Dayalbagh Educational Institute (DEI) is a Deemed University. The Government of India declared the Dayalbagh Educational Institute as an institution Deemed to be a University from the session 1981-82, under Section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act 1956 (3 of 1956). The Institute has since been accorded the membership of the Association of Indian Universities.

Location:

The Institute is situated at Dayalbagh, Agra. It is conveniently connected with Road and Railway.

Department of Accountancy & Law:

The nucleus of Commerce education is the accounting and financial analysis and modelling of real life decision situations. Department of Accountancy & Law caters exactly to this ever growing area under the aegis of Faculty of Commerce. The department offers B.Com. (Hons.), B.Com (Hons.) Synchronous Mode, Corporate Law & Accounting M.Com., M.Com. (International Business), Integrated M.Com. with B.Ed., Integrated B.Com. with MBA, M.Phil and Ph.D.

Department is contributing significantly to impart quality and value based education to its students. The department places high degree of importance to research activities as well. The department has undertaken and successfully completed UGC, ICSSR Research Projects.

Indian Accounting Association (IAA)

The Indian Accounting Association is an interface between academicians, professional and practitioners from various universities, business, industry and government. The main function of IAA is to promote and disseminate the knowledge of accounting and the related subjects in India and abroad. Further, it aims to undertake and encourage research in the field of accounting. Ever since its inception, the IAA has served as an important forum for raising the status of accounting both as a discipline and as an important tool for managerial decision making.

The association was founded by academicians and professionals in accounting on March 17, 1969, and was inaugurated on February 14, 1970 by the Accountant General of Uttar Pradesh. It is a member organization of International Association of Accounting Education and Research (IAAER). The Agra branch of the Association was established in 2012.

The Indian Accounting Association is also held in high esteem by American Accounting Association (AAA). At present, IAA has a network of 50 branches in India with more than 5500 life members, and a Research Foundation as an affiliate at Kolkata. It also brings out a biannual research journal 'Indian Journal of Accounting' in the months of June & December to give wider publicity to research findings. The Association also gives IAA Young Research Award and IAA fellowship. The Association offers Life Membership and Annual Membership for Individuals and Institutions through its Branches across India

AGRA – City of Taj

Agra, the then capital of Mughal Emperors - Located 220 kms from the National Capital New Delhi, Agra provides vivid glimpses of Mughal architecture. Home of the World famous Taj Mahal, the Red Fort, Sikandra, the mausoleum of Emperor Akbar, the Itmad-ud-Daulah, a mausoleum built for Empress Noor Jahan's father. Some 37 km. South-west of Agra, on the Agra Jaipur route, lies one of the most extraordinary medieval cities of India, the imperial Fatehpur Sikri and last but not the least the Radhasoami Temple on Dayalbagh road, which is an example of very impressive architecture.
