Extention Lecture Summary

The Department of Commerce and Management, University of Kota, Kota held a welcome programme and an extension lecture in collaboration with Indian Accounting Association, Kota Branch on 20th January, 2020. The programme has been marked by the presence of the faculties of Department of Commerce and Management and the members of Indian Accounting Association. Prof. G. Soral (Dean, PG, MLSU, Udaipur) after being appointed as a National President of Indian Accounting Association has been welcomed to the department. Also, Dr. Meenu Maheshwari (Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce and Management, University of Kota) has been welcomed after becoming a member of a national committee of Indian Accounting Association.

The session has commenced with the welcome note by Dr. Anita Sukhwai (Head, Department of the Commerce and Management, University of Kota) addressing the audience and the guest. Without extending much, Dr. Anita Sukhwai invited Prof. G. Soral to took the podium and address the audience on the emerging issues in accounting. He has asserted that there are areas which are prevailing on the grounds of the contemporary world but our accounting courses are not incorporating it. Due to which, the students did not get acquaint with the prevailing concepts and streams and often don't find it easy to pace up in their academic and professional life. The current accounting courses are required to accommodate the current changes that are taking place in purview of accounting. The agenda behind that lies in the fact of overall growth and development of the students and the academicians in the field of accounting. Also, he has underlined the suggestion that the regular committee meetings should be conducted to discuss about the prevailing areas of accounting. Taking the discussed areas of accounting, the curriculum and courses should be transformed on a regular basis so that it would be able to enlighten students and academicians at a greater extent. With this, Prof. G. Soral packed up his talk and invited the queries and suggestions. The faculties of the department Dr. Anukrati Sharma, Dr. Pragya Dheer and Mr. Ashish Asopa raised their queries on this issue which has been duly answered by the professor. Further, Dr. Ashok Kumar Gupta (Associate Professor, Govt. Commerce College, Kota) has been invited on the podium to enlighten further on the topic and felicitate Prof. G. Soral for becoming a National President of Indian Accounting Association. In a course of action, he rendered his valuable insights on the emerging trends in accounting and welcomed Prof. G. Soral by offering him flowers and a memento. In the end, Dr. Meenu Maheshwari expressed her immense gratitude to the department for her and Prof. G. Soral's welcome and felicitation. She delivered her vote of thanks to the Prof. G. Soral for giving his time and efforts to the department and enlighten all the attendees by his worthy inputs. She also thanked Dr. Ashok Kumar Gupta for sparing time and ensuring his presence at the programme. The head of the department Dr. Anita Sukhwai has been thanked for organizing such a programme and the other faculties and the IAA members for being the participative audience and the keen listeners of the session.
