

Norms for Selection of Chairmen/Co-Chairmen

All India Accounting Conference and International Seminar of IAA

(Approved in Online EC Meeting of 27/02/2026 Agenda Item No. 3)

1. Constitution of Selection Committee

Every year, President of the Indian Accounting Association shall constitute a Committee for the appointment of Chairmen and Co-Chairmen for various Technical Sessions and Seminar Sessions of the All India Accounting Conference and International Seminar.

2. Invitation of Nominations (15-Days Window)

The General Secretary shall invite nominations from life members of IAA.

The nomination process shall remain open for a period of 15 days from the date of circulation of the Google Form.

Each eligible member shall nominate eminent academicians from amongst life members of IAA, one person for Chairman (not below the academic level of a Professor) and one person for Co-Chairman (not below the academic level of an Associate Professor) for the Technical/Seminar Sessions. Retired persons who held respective posts shall be eligible for nomination. Self nomination shall be allowed.

3. Eligibility and Preference Criteria

Preference shall be given to individuals who are actively contributing or have significantly contributed to the academic, professional, and organizational objectives of IAA.

4. Rotation and Restriction Norms

- Any person who has served as Chairman in either of the immediately preceding two Conferences shall not be eligible for appointment as Chairman.
- Similarly, any person who has served as Co-Chairman in either of the immediately preceding two Conferences shall not be eligible for appointment as Co-Chairman.

This provision ensures wider academic participation and equitable distribution of leadership opportunities.

5. The Immediate Past President shall be appointed as Chairman of either of the sessions of International Seminars on Accounting Education and Research."

6. Panel Formation for Sessions

A panel of minimum two Chairmen/Co-Chairmen shall be appointed for each Technical/Seminar Session to facilitate the smooth conduct of concurrent sessions and to ensure fair opportunity for paper presentation to delegates.
